Product description

Pectins are more than just dietary fiber. Naturally occurring in many types of fruit, these plant-based polysaccharides act as a natural gelling agent. Once in the intestines, they absorb excess moisture and can thus be a natural aid to digestive disturbances. herbaBARF Diarrhea Stop Plus absorbs moisture, supports the natural mucilaginous, protective barrier of the intestine, and helps to replenish the mineral balance stressed by diarrhea.

In the case of nutrition-related diarrhea, it can be used - also in combination with herbaBARF Probiotic - for support.
