Product description

COLUMBAVet PowerMix provides the body of the pigeon with valuable herbs, vitamin E, selenium, amino acids, electrolytes, essential fatty acids, and iron. This allows the physiological organ functions and metabolic processes necessary for muscle development and performance to be optimally supplied. COLUMBAVet PowerMix is the optimal support before and during the trip and for faster regeneration after the trip. Recommendation: For mineral supply during the journey, COLUMBAVet VulcanoMineral is additionally advisable.
